

MERRIMACK LACROSSE

TRIPLE HEADLER

COMEDY NIGHT

An all star night of comedy will be held at the Alpine Grove in Hollis, Saturday, March 27, at 8 p.m. starring Las Vegas performer and New England headliner George Hamm along with Comedy Central's Harrison Stebbins, and Ryan Gartley.

Tickets are only $20 and may be purchased in advance by contacting Karen Shaw at (603) 424-6402 or by emailing mlacrossefund@comcast.net <<mailto:mlacrossefund@comcast.net>> . Proceeds will help the Merrimack Lacrosse programs.

"We held a similar event last year and it was great," said Shaw who is once again organizing the show. "We had a great crowd and the comedians were excellent so we are hoping the parents as well as the public will turn out again."

As for the comedians, all three are well established and lay claim to an impressive list of credentials.

George Hamm's irreverent and sarcastic look view of the world is well known to comedy fans nation wide as he has performed in Las Vegas, the Improv in Los Angeles, The Comedy Store and the Laugh Factory in Hollywood and the Laugh Factory in Hawaii. Hamm has appeared on Last Comic Standing and when home in New England and not on the road, is one of the top headliners in the region.

Stebbins is the type of comedian who captures his audiences and will not allow them to escape until he has completed his rampage through much of society's quirks and eccentricities.

Stebbins is a high energy, no holds barred comedian who utilizes improvisation, crowd interaction, sarcasm and charisma. His unique blend of high-energy physical comedy and clever insights, keeps an audience laughing long after he has left the stage.

Gartley is a ten-year veteran of the Boston comedy scene having played virtually every major club in the region as well as having worked colleges and lounges across the country, from Las Vegas to Bangor, Maine. Gartley has been a semifinalist in both the Boston and the Portland Comedy Festivals, and he has opened for national acts such as Jeff Dunham, Steven Wright, and Lenny Clarke. With his quick, critical observations and witty humor Gartley made a name for himself as one of the hardest working acts in the business.
